Brakeman in Shooting Affray.

In a difficulty which started over a trivial matter, in a restaurant at the corner of Tenth and Pleasant streets, Arch Spicer was shot in the hip by D. M. Reese. Both of the men were brakemen in the employ of the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

Spicer, it is said, was in the lunch room eating when Reese entered and started a quarrel. The men engaged in a heated argument, when Reese drew a revolver and fired. The bullet a .44 caliber, entered Spicer's side just above the hip.

Spicer was removed to his boarding house on Tenth street, where Dr. William Kenney extracted the bullet from his back. The wound is not serious.
Before the arrival of the police Reese escaped and has not been apprehended.

Confederate Daughters Meet.

The Richard Hawes Chapter, U. D. C., met in regular session Saturday afternoon in the Confederate rooms in the court house. The meeting was principally to consider "The Battle of Shiloh," and interesting papers on the subject were presented by Mrs. J. D.
Burroughs and Mrs. Russell Mann.
Mrs. C. C. Leer called attention to a pocket compass which was given her by Mr. Hooker Stivers, of this city, the relic having been found on the person of a Confederate soldier who was captured by Mr. Stiver's father, near North Middletown. There is an inscription on the back of the compass:
"William Miller, November 1, 1863; formerly of Hardin county, with Col.
Duke's regiment, Second Kentucky." Mr. Stivers gave the compass to Mrs. Leer, hoping that she might be able to locate the owner or some member of his family. The meeting was one of unusual interest and was well attended.

Two Alarms.

The fire department was called out Saturday morning in response to an alarm from Box 15 to the seed cleaning warehouse of E. F. Spears & Sons, where burning chaff caused a small blaze, which was extinguished before the department arrived.

Sunday afternoon about one o'clock fire caused from a defective flue, broke out at the home of Jane Duffy, in Clayville. An alarm was sent in from Box 32, but the blaze had been extinguished before its arrival.

Fire, wind and lightning insurance. Thomas & Woodford.

Thrown From Break Cart.
